

Selling stuff

UK – we want to be able to sell stuff to EU countries without having lots of people checking that everything fits in with lots of different rules.

EU – We are happy to buy and sell things with the UK, but they need to stick to all our rules.

People living abroad

UK – We want all the people from the UK who are living in the EU and all the people from the EU who are living in the UK to be allowed to stay where they are.

EU – We want all the people from the EU who are living in the UK and all the people from the UK who are living in the EU to be allowed to stay where they are.

Payment

UK – We don't owe the EU anything, but might be happy to pay a little bit to make sure we stay friends

EU – The UK owes us somewhere between £60 billion and £100 billion. They must pay this or we can't agree anything.

We, the United Kingdom, and we, the European Union agree to the following:
